

WHEN STUDENTS LEAVE ST. JOSEPH'S THEY WILL:

Faithful.

- Build their relationship with God.
- Live the Gospel values through their interactions with others.
- Show self-belief, feel valued and have a sense of belonging.

Build relationships.

- Verbalise their thoughts, opinions and feelings in an appropriate manner to the situation.
- Make meaning and sense of a range of written texts. To be able to read, write and make connections to share understanding.
- Be aware of, and respond to, the varied ways people communicate.
- Build relationships based on mutual respect and understanding.

Competent thinkers.

- Independently reflect on learning, problem solve and find solutions using initiative and critical thinking.
- Think critically, creatively and reflectively to make sense of information, experiences and ideas.
- Independently form their own opinions and ideas, based on prior knowledge and new learning.
- Confidently ask questions to clarify thinking.
- Work effectively to collaborate with others.

Effective self managers.

- Take ownership of themselves, their time, belongings, and their learning.
- Demonstrate self-management across varied environments.
- Take pride in their learning and strive to improve.
- Proactively take steps to further their learning.
- Accept responsibility for their thoughts, words and actions.
- Understand the consequences of effective and ineffective self-management.
- Be lifelong learners.

Show resilience.

- Have the skills to grow from life's challenges.
- Be confident in their abilities.
- Challenge their limitations.
- Show grit, perseverance and learn from their failures.
- Have a sense of wellbeing and self-esteem.
- Be motivated and self-driven.
- Show flexibility.